Here Is Good News for Stomach Victims
Many city remarkable results have been obtained by treating stomach, liver and intestinal troubles with pure stomach pills, which exert a cleansing and purifying action upon the bowels, relieving the obstructions of a poisonous food matter and gases, and restoring the stomach to its normal condition. This done, the food is allowed free passage from the stomach, through the bowels and stomach troubles disappear.

George H. May, for twenty years a leading Chicago druggist, cured himself of this trouble of stomach, liver and intestinal troubles of years standing by this treatment, and now writes to his friends of the relief he has since been placed in the hands of the medicine he sold thousands of bottles. The medicine is sufficient to cure any one of its remarkable effects, and within 24 hours the sufferer feels like a new person. May's New Stomach Remedy is now sold by Jacobs Pharmacy Co. (Advt.)

BIG GROWTH SHOWN

GRADY HOSPITAL WORK
Dr. Summerall Gives Figures Showing Rapid Strides in Local Institution

Dr. W. H. Summerall, superintendent of Grady Hospital, has prepared an interesting statement showing the growth of the hospital work in the last four years and how that institution has become heavily overcrowded. This statement was prepared at the request of some of the industrial insurance companies of Atlanta, who will incorporate it into the policyholder's report.

As to the number of patients treated, Dr. Summerall compares 1908, the year when he took charge at the hospital, with present conditions. In 1908, there were 1,143 white and 762 colored patients in beds, making a total of 1,905. In 1913, there were 2,318 white and 1,150 colored patients treated in bed, making a total of 3,468.

DELAY WOMAN'S HEARING

FOR THE EIGHTH TIME
Charged With Cheating and Swindling, Case Postponed on Account of Illness

For the eighth time the case of cheating and swindling against Mrs. Ella Harrison White, wife of Dr. O. T. White, has been postponed in the criminal court of Atlanta because of illness of the defendant.

Mrs. White was indicted in January, 1912, for cheating and swindling Dr. J. K. Turner, a druggist at 241 Forsyth street, out of $2,395.15. She was turned over to the state of Georgia, where she was the owner of the Gould mansion, at the corner of Elizabeth street and Edge-wood avenue, according to the indictment.

At the time the indictment was returned, the case has been set, it has been postponed at the request of Mrs. White's attorney, who has been in court several times on the ground that she was too ill to appear in court.

Three weeks ago, J. C. Clark, then, a hotel where she was then stopping, with a private ambulance. He went to Mrs. White's apartment, at 1215 North Avenue, and took her to the hospital.

At the time the indictment was returned, the case has been set, it has been postponed at the request of Mrs. White's attorney, who has been in court several times on the ground that she was too ill to appear in court.

PHYSICIAN IS ACCUSED

OF SELLING LICENSES
Charges Against Dr. C. W. Miller Are Filed With State Medical Board

Charges that he had sold licenses to practicing physicians who had never taken the required examinations were preferred against Dr. C. W. Miller, of Atlanta, secretary of the old board of select medical examiners, which was discontinued last year, were made before the state board of medical examiners Tuesday afternoon.

These charges were made by Dr. W. D. Branch, of Haxley, who declared he had bought a license from Dr. Miller last year, and said he would take her to court, and say, sick or well.

By paying for the ambulance and by paying 25 cents an hour to a man left by Clark to guard her, she was permitted to get a new nondescript in Charles E. Thompson. He is now on her bond which is $2,000.

At the time the indictment was returned, the case has been set, it has been postponed at the request of Mrs. White's attorney, who has been in court several times on the ground that she was too ill to appear in court.

for $100, and by Dr. H. E. Hall, of Atlanta, who said he had obtained one for $10. The board of medical examiners is expected to investigate these charges.

Both Dr. Branch and Dr. Hall are graduates of the Southern College of Medicine and Surgery, of Atlanta. They failed to pass the regular state board of last year. The board has voted not to recognize the Southern College of Medicine and Surgery on the ground that it fails short of the standards fixed in the statute last year.

The Georgia College of Podiatric Medicine and Surgery was placed on probation with the understanding that if certain suggested improvements are not made by the next meeting of the board it will be closed.

GOOD ROADS ADVOCATES ARRIVING FOR SESSION

Many Come to Atlanta to Take Part in Formal Organization of Association

Advocates of good roads from every section of the state began to arrive in Atlanta Wednesday morning to take part in the formal organization of the Association of County Commissioners of Georgia at the New Kimball commencing at 2 p. m. The sessions will continue through Thursday.

The official registration booth for delegates and visitors will be opened in the convention hall of the hotel and there all desired information may be obtained. Bldges and programs will also be distributed by the local committee in charge.

The convention proper will not be called to order until the afternoon when Mayor James G. Woodard will deliver an address of welcome. Judge John W. Haddock of Rome, will respond. Following the election of temporary officers and the formal organization of the association, permanent officers will be named. The remainder of the first day's session will then be given over to talks on the building and maintenance of public highways. The speakers chosen are: J. S. Miller, state highway engineer, of Alabama; Joseph Hyde Pratt, state geologist of North Carolina, and Dr. W. S. McCallie, state geologist of Georgia.

Wednesday evening the commissioners will be tendered a banquet at the Hotel Ansley. W. T. Winn will be hostmaster. Governor John M. Slaton, J. F. Pennypacker, former secretary of the American Road congress, Washington, D. C., and Lewis B. Ferguson, of Philadelphia, will speak.

The local committee in charge of the convention is composed of: Ivan E. Allen, chairman; T. C. Waters, George W. Waters, W. T. Winn, Shelby Smith and Fred House.

Following is the program for Thursday:

7 A. M.—Convention called to order. Report of committee on organization, resolutions and nomination of permanent officers; election of permanent officers; enrollment of members by counties; new business; appointment of committee on legislation.

A Sale of Suits and Dresses

That Come of

A Purchase of Three Thousand Suits and Two Thousand Dresses Made by Our Buying Organization Last Week

450 Suits and 300 Dresses of This Big
Purchase Are Shown in This Store Today

50 Different Suit Models—60 Different Dress Models

We Consider This One of the Best Value Giving Sales We Have Ever Offered the Public of Atlanta and Surrounding Country

If there is a time when a pleasant task becomes a difficult one it is the occasion when you have something to tell of which is so much more worthy than a paltry service of words is capable of conveying.

Now, that's a long sentence; please take it kindly and help us with this pleasant task. The profit will be yours.

We would put a period right here and stop, if we had your promise to come to this store tomorrow morning and settle this question of talk—for arguments are futile in the face of facts. Indeed, all argument in favor of this last and best suit arrival becomes unnecessary when you see them.

Let us give an example which will drive directly to the vital point: If you had bought a Spring Suit from us—or anyone else—paid $40 for it and been pleased with the purchase, wouldn't you be glad to hear that you could buy practically the same suit, materials, style and color, for $21.75?

Of course you would. That's just the message this page brings you today.

These Suits came to us yesterday. The very great difference in selling prices, begins with buying prices. We bought this lot of Suits when manufacturers were ready to "turn loose" all they had at our own price. There isn't anything hard to believe about that. And about the very splendid worthiness of these Suits, seeing them more than confirms your faith in these words.

The new Cape Coat Suit. The Beautiful Butterfly Model and a numberless variety of fascinating Bolero Styles are shown.

A great many navy blue, black and shepherd checks, as well as every good novelty fabric and color, are included in this sale.

Putting on a conservative appraisement, these suits are $27.50, $30, $35 and $40 values at—$21.75

Our Spring stock of Silk Dresses has this day been supplemented with three hundred new arrivals. The values are even better than those which have caused such tremendous selling here these last two days. Never have we had such dresses for the money, and there is not one in the lot that would not be a big value if priced at one-third more than it is now marked. They come in the very latest models, materials and colors—taffeta, crepe metors and printed crepes, made up with lace and chiffon. Many afternoon and evening styles; values $20, $25, $30 and $35—

DON'T BE SURPRISED IF THE BUTCHER BRINGS HIS SHOP AROUND TO YOUR HOUSE.—By Goldberg.

Copyright, 1914, by R. L. Goldberg.

SHIPS TO TAKE VERA CRUZ AND TAMPIO IF HUERTA IS FIRM

which lies in proximity to the territory controlled by the constitutionalists. News of the victory of the constitutionalists at San Pedro, where reports from Juarez state a large federal force was vanquished, added an interesting phase to the situation. It was regarded in some quarters as likely to temper the attitude of General Huerta in his refusal to salute the American flag and was considered of paramount influence in pushing the constitutionalist march on Mexico City.

That the real victory and the American demand for a salute would precipitate a crisis at Mexico City was the confidential belief of many officials here. No time limit has been set for the salute, which will be in about a week, to obey the American demand. Rear Admiral Fiske, aide for operations in the navy department, who went to Hampton Roads today to advise local details of the initial details of the salute, which will be in about a week, to obey the American demand. Rear Admiral Fiske, aide for operations in the navy department, who went to Hampton Roads today to advise local details of the initial details of the salute, which will be in about a week, to obey the American demand.

While the navy department is silent as to what Rear Admiral Fiske is permitted to do, it is understood that if the emergency arises he will have broad latitude to deal with the situation as he sees fit. The disposition of the American government, however, is to exact absolute obedience without interference in the progress of the revolution.

INSTANCES ARE CITED. Seizure of a customs house officer has been resorted to as a means of obtaining satisfaction of a claim. One instance, among others, is cited. In 1913 France declared a peaceful blockade of certain ports in Mexico. The disposition of the American government, however, is to exact absolute obedience without interference in the progress of the revolution.

On the other hand the British government, in 1861, demanded of Brazil redress for the plundering of a British vessel off the Brazilian coast. When the British demands were refused the British declared a peaceful blockade of the port of Rio de Janeiro.

There has been some question as to whether a peaceful blockade would require an authorization from congress. International lawyers, contending that, inasmuch as it amounts practically to a commercial embargo, the executive branch of the government would be able to deal with it without resort to action by congress.

The landing of marines on foreign soil is another mooted point on which the right to act without the authorization of congress has been questioned. American marines, however, have been landed in many cases recently without action by the legislative branch of the government. The possibility that marines and bluecoats might police Tampico, where where the battle has been fought, and that the town itself might be reduced, was discussed by officials within the range of possibilities and the attitude of General Huerta toward the sending of the fleet was awaited with much interest.

Battleship Michigan to Leave Philadelphia Today

(Associated Press.) PHILADELPHIA, April 15.—Officers and crew of the battleship Michigan worked all night under the glare of searchlights at the navy yard to load the big fighter for sea duty in response to the order for the concentration of the Atlantic fleet at Tampico.

The Michigan is expected to leave the city today. The dreadnought is commanded by Captain Albert P. Niblack, who, with his officers and men, she will sail with the regular complement of 48 marines.

Cruiser Tacoma to Leave Boston for Tampico Today

(Associated Press.) BOSTON, April 15.—Preparations were hurriedly made overnight for the departure of the third class cruiser Tacoma, which was ordered yesterday to proceed to Tampico, Mexico, with a preliminary stop at Newport, R. I. Navy officials announced she would sail today.

The Tacoma is commanded by Commander Nathan C. Twining and carries 260 men. At Newport she will take on 50 ordinary seamen and coal passers.

Huerta Cannot See Why He Should Salute U. S. Flag

VERA CRUZ, April 15.—The Mexican foreign minister, Señor Portillo Rojas, has transmitted to American Charge Nathan C. Twining a note dated this morning in which he refused to salute the American flag under the circumstances.

He said that the Mexican government cannot see where, under the circumstances, it should be obliged to salute the American flag under the circumstances.

SUMMON PHYSICIAN IN HEARING FOR NEW TRIAL

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

BALTIMORE, Md., April 15.—After she had wandered in a stupor all night, Mrs. Judge Stark, wife of Judge W. W. Stark, of Commerce, Ga., was found this morning near the Union station. She was unharmed and apparently was trying to make her way back to Georgia.

The long search of police and detectives was not rewarded until about 10 o'clock this morning.

Judge Stark's statement to the police was that she was suffering from a slight mental aberration. She made repeated threats Monday to leave her home and go to Georgia, but yesterday seemed content, and apparently was in the best of moods when her husband left her alone for a short time.
